Programme Outcome BACHELOR OF ARTS

The B.A. programme in the Directorate of Distance Education is recognized by UGC, DEB and follows the syllabus prescribed by the University of North Bengal.

Course combination for B.A. Programme Course:

Discipline Specific Courses (DSC) and Generic Electives (GE): Select any two Course Subjects (taking any one Course Subject each from any two groups as DSC and any one Course Subject from remaining one group as GE of the 3 groups given below. DSE subjects will be same as DSC subjects):

Group A: Bengali, English, Hindi and Nepali

Group B: History, Philosophy and Education

Group C: Political Science and Sociology

SEC (any two): Bengali, English, Hindi, Nepali, History, Philosophy, Education, Political Science and Sociology

B.A. programme meets the standards prescribed by general humanities education. Some learning outcomes include:

Cognitive skills: Students choosing combination of three subjects develop social, political, historic, economic and literary consciousness and will be better able to appreciate different civilizations, culture. In the three-year duration, they will cultivate the sensibility to discern the evolution of civilizations and cultures. At the end of the programme, they usually will have advanced reading, writing, speaking, interpretive and composition skills in both languages.

Employability: On graduating, the students will be eligible for employment in various sectors and industries. Students also become employable in non-governmental organizations. Their skills in comprehension of general social phenomena around them place them in ideal situation for such jobs. They will also be able to appear for competitive examinations conducted for public sector jobs. The general humanities education equips them to clear competitive exams.

Values: Humanities education is designed in such a way that it lays particular emphasis on human values. Students on completion of the undergraduate degree will be better able to appreciate the literary and cultural diversity. It equips them to think critically about the issues of contemporary relevance and hold an informed opinion on them.
